

THE DAILY STAR.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS.
CINCINNATI, Wednesday, June 9.—Noon.
It will probably remain fair to-day, with indications of rain by to-morrow.

LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

FROM CHRISTIANITY. The Music Master of the Mount Auburn Institute, leaves to-day for Europe for a permanent stay.
MR. CHAS. H. FLACH was united in the bonds of wedlock last evening to the youngest daughter of the late A. W. Frank.

DR. L. J. ALLEN, Ex-President of the Farmers' College, will deliver an address to-morrow at the commencement exercises of that institution.

The Cincinnati Amateur Baseball Club elected the following officers: J. Wm. Johnson, President pro tem.; T. W. King, Secretary; Sam. Walker, Jr., Treasurer.

JUDGE SWINE, of the United States Court, proposes by Friday to take a vacation of several weeks, as he has disposed of the business of the Court to allow his absence.

REV. J. P. KUMLER, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis, and formerly of Oxford, has received a call from the Third Presbyterian Church of this city.

The original indictment found against Aaron Burr for conspiracy against the Government in 1806, has been discovered among the old records and papers in the file in the Clerk's office of the United States Circuit Court, in this city.

MR. AND MRS. PHINEAS PHILLIPS will shortly, at their home in this city, celebrate the fifteenth or golden anniversary of their wedding. Their cards of invitation, tastefully engraved in golden letters, announce that no presents will be accepted.

The Strawberry Festival at Exposition Hall last night was a complete success. The attendance was large, the music good, the ladies unusually attractive, and the refreshments excellent and plentiful. The receipts are estimated at over $1,000.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL at St. John's Methodist Church will hold its anniversary reception this evening. Rev. Thomas Collett, the pastor, will preside. Rev. John W. Dillon, of the Ohio Conference, and Rev. John W. Zimmermann, of the Kentucky Conference, will address the school.

The commencement of the Wesleyan College will be held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, and in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. The inauguration ceremony will take place on the evening of the same day, and the Alumni Literary Exercises on Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, in the College Chapel.

DETROIT J. H. CARY, of this city, yesterday arrested Thomas Bragg near Washington Court House, on a charge of incendiarism. Several charges of that nature have been brought against Bragg, as he is believed to be the author of a number of destructive fires in and about Washington Court House.

While one of the janitors of the Cincinnati Public Library was engaged in lighting the gas in the reading-room last evening, at 7:30 o'clock, some of the papers on file caught fire. The lively blaze of the burning paper produced quite a sensation among the visitors and employees. The fire was extinguished without turning in a general alarm.

The Israelites to-day celebrate the Feast of Weeks, the anniversary of the promulgation of the Decalogue given by God to Moses on the sixth day of Sivan on Mount Sinai. Services were held at 10 o'clock this morning in every Temple in this city. This day, for years, has been celebrated as confirmation day, and the services, this morning, were of the grandest and most impressive character.

The Kilgours, through their attorneys, sent a warning to Solicitor Strong yesterday, notifying him, on behalf of the Cincinnati Stationary Engine and Hydraulic Works, that they will look to the city to compensate them for the extra expense incurred in the use of steam to run their machinery in their shops, at Lock No. 7, the expense being caused by the failure of the city to complete the rail-race and retaining wall at that lock.

A BURGALAR this morning about 4 o'clock, broke into the eastern corner of Elm and Fifth streets, and while rummaging around, was discovered by one of the bar-keepers, who immediately engaged in a tussle with him to prevent his escape. After a severe struggle the burglar succeeded in freeing himself and with a desperate effort jumped through a large window, carrying the sashwork with him. After this feat the burglar made himself scarce.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

The Weekly Star. For this week, is now ready. It contains the latest news by telegraph, a full summary of the news of the past week, together with local news of general interest. Its leading editorialists are Spain, Mrs. Lincoln and Charlotte, As an Englishman sees us, Cooperation, The New Member of the National Family, together with a large number of new, spicy editorial paragraphs. Death of Bellamy Storrs, Proceedings of the Republican State Convention, Humorous Gossip, Odds and Ends, Personal, Religious Intelligence, Marriage of Gen. Phil. Sheridan, several short stories, Poetry, the crop prospect, a large amount of interesting reading matter pertaining to art, science, and literature, etc. Full and complete local and foreign Market and Finance Report, etc., etc.

Price 4 cents in wrappers, ready for mailing, to be had at our counter.

DRESS GOODS, &C.

J. LE BOUTILLIER & BROS.

GREAT REDUCTION!

TO CLOSE OUT

Spring Stock!

WILL OFFER, THIS MORNING,

50 pcs. Striped Silk, 75c., reduced from $1.

50 pcs. Striped Silk, 85c., reduced from $1 10.

100 pcs. Striped Silk, $1, reduced from $1 25.

BARGAINS!

—IN—

CHEAP DRESS GOODS

2 cases Jap. Poplins, 12 1-2c., worth 20c.

5 cases Twilled Poplins, 15c., worth 25c.

1 case Striped Leno, 25c., worth 40c.

1 case plaids, 20c., worth 35c.

SPECIAL!

100 pcs. Silk Warp Mohair, 50c., reduced from $1.

100 pcs. Silk Pongee, 50c., reduced from $1 25.

The Cheapest Dress Goods Ever Offered in This Market.

J. LE BOUTILLIER & BROS.

104 and 106 W. 4th St.

WASHING MADE EASY!

USE NICHOLS' PATENT

SOFT SOAP.

Ask Your Grocer for It.

NICHOLS' PATENT SOAP COMPANY,

87 and 89 Canal street, near Vinc.

By James Blinn,

Salesroom, No. 106 West Fifth Street.

Stock, Fixtures and Tools of an Extensive Confectionery and Restaurant at Auction.

ON THURSDAY MORNING, June 10,

at 9 o'clock, at 91 John street, (removed to warehouse for convenience of sale) fine plated show cases, lot marble tables, glass, plated and table ware in great variety, suited to the trade, ice-cream molds and freezers and tubs, chaffing dishes, coffee and tea urns, tea trays; also, a lot of household furniture and 20 dozen common and case-cased chairs. There is an extensive lot of goods, and worthy the attention of the trade and others.

B. E. STEVENS & SON,

85 and 87 E. Fifth St.,

Manufacturers of Carriages, Cabs, Omnibuses, Buggies, etc., and all kinds of Horse-drawn Wagons, which we are selling at exceedingly low rates. Repairing done at short notice, and at reasonable prices.

LEGAL. M. Fringant, plaintiff, vs. Louis P. Schwallier. Before F. H. Rowe, Judge of the Peace of Hamilton County, O. On the 30th day of May, 1894, said Justice filed an order of attachment in the above action for $75. Trial set for hearing on July 8th, 1894, at 8 o'clock A. M. M. FRINGANT, CINCINNATI, May 24, 1894. my30-4W

LEGAL. Hamilton County Common Pleas. No. 46,222.—Fanny Hess, plaintiff, vs. Valentine C. Hess, defendant. On the 20th day of May, 1894, said Justice filed an order of attachment in the above action for $75. Trial set for hearing on July 8th, 1894, at 8 o'clock A. M. M. FRINGANT, CINCINNATI, May 24, 1894. my30-4W

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

DRESS GOODS, &C.

J. LE BOUTILLIER & BROS.

GREAT REDUCTION!

TO CLOSE OUT

Spring Stock!

WILL OFFER, THIS MORNING,

50 pcs. Striped Silk, 75c., reduced from $1.

50 pcs. Striped Silk, 85c., reduced from $1 10.

100 pcs. Striped Silk, $1, reduced from $1 25.

BARGAINS!

—IN—

CHEAP DRESS GOODS

2 cases Jap. Poplins, 12 1-2c., worth 20c.

5 cases Twilled Poplins, 15c., worth 25c.

1 case Striped Leno, 25c., worth 40c.

1 case plaids, 20c., worth 35c.

SPECIAL!

100 pcs. Silk Warp Mohair, 50c., reduced from $1.

100 pcs. Silk Pongee, 50c., reduced from $1 25.

The Cheapest Dress Goods Ever Offered in This Market.

J. LE BOUTILLIER & BROS.

104 and 106 W. 4th St.

WASHING MADE EASY!

USE NICHOLS' PATENT

SOFT SOAP.

Ask Your Grocer for It.

NICHOLS' PATENT SOAP COMPANY,

87 and 89 Canal street, near Vinc.

By James Blinn,

Salesroom, No. 106 West Fifth Street.

Stock, Fixtures and Tools of an Extensive Confectionery and Restaurant at Auction.

ON THURSDAY MORNING, June 10,

at 9 o'clock, at 91 John street, (removed to warehouse for convenience of sale) fine plated show cases, lot marble tables, glass, plated and table ware in great variety, suited to the trade, ice-cream molds and freezers and tubs, chaffing dishes, coffee and tea urns, tea trays; also, a lot of household furniture and 20 dozen common and case-cased chairs. There is an extensive lot of goods, and worthy the attention of the trade and others.

B. E. STEVENS & SON,

85 and 87 E. Fifth St.,

Manufacturers of Carriages, Cabs, Omnibuses, Buggies, etc., and all kinds of Horse-drawn Wagons, which we are selling at exceedingly low rates. Repairing done at short notice, and at reasonable prices.

LEGAL. M. Fringant, plaintiff, vs. Louis P. Schwallier. Before F. H. Rowe, Judge of the Peace of Hamilton County, O. On the 30th day of May, 1894, said Justice filed an order of attachment in the above action for $75. Trial set for hearing on July 8th, 1894, at 8 o'clock A. M. M. FRINGANT, CINCINNATI, May 24, 1894. my30-4W

LEGAL. Hamilton County Common Pleas. No. 46,222.—Fanny Hess, plaintiff, vs. Valentine C. Hess, defendant. On the 20th day of May, 1894, said Justice filed an order of attachment in the above action for $75. Trial set for hearing on July 8th, 1894, at 8 o'clock A. M. M. FRINGANT, CINCINNATI, May 24, 1894. my30-4W

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.

At the meeting of the Park Commissioners yesterday Mr. Earnshaw was re-elected Park Engineer. Mr. Bain, for Eden Park; Mr. Nerney, for Burnet Woods; and Mr. Gleason, for Lincoln, were reappointed as assistants. The chair announced the following commission to perform a program in two parts, to consist of six numbers, each organization to select such three pieces as they choose and perform them, leaving the same music unutilized on the grounds for the other to perform after them. Forty names of Professors of music were given in the communication to form the jury of the test performance. On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Music.